Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, December 10.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London, attended by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Lincoln, Dean of St. Paul's, Mr. Archdeacon Eaton, Mr. Archdeacon Pott, Dr. Bingham, Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Bell, Dr. Vincent, Dr. Mayo, Dr. Coombe, D. Finch, Mr. Barton, Mr. Fly, and ſeveral other of the Principal Clergy, being introduced to the King by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Houſehold.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, beg Permiſſion to expreſs, in your Majeſty's Preſence, our devouteſt Thankfulneſs to Almighty God, for having ſo recently protected your Royal Perſon from a moſt flagitious Attempt to deprive us, by one fatal Blow, of one of the beſt of Sovereigns and of Men.

The many ſubſtantial Bleſſings we experience, and have long experienced, under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, are a ſtanding and irreſiſtible Proof (a Proof that ſpeaks to our Hearts no leſs than to our Underſtandings) of the infinite Importance of your Majeſty's Life to theſe Kingdoms. We are deeply ſenſible that in it are bound up our beſt and deareſt Intereſts; and we can never ſee it expoſed to Danger without Terror and Diſmay, nor delivered from that Danger without the livelieſt Senſations of Joy and Gratitude to Heaven.

To what other Sources ſuch atrocious Acts as that which we now contemplate with ſo much Horror are to be traced, it is not our peculiar Province to enquire. But there is one Cauſe which falls more immediately under our Obſervation, and which we have too much Reaſon to believe has contributed its full Share to the Production of theſe crying Evils: We mean, Sir, Publications teeming with Infidelity, Impiety, and Blaſphemy, with the groſſeſt and moſt indecent Inſults on our Divine Maſter, on his Divine Religion, on the Holy Scriptures, on every Thing held ſacred and venerable among Men; moſt artfully accommodated at the ſame Time to the Underſtandings of the inferior and leaſt informed Orders of the People, among whom they have been diſſeminated with incredible Induſtry, and have, it is to be feared, done incredible Miſchief, by eradicating out of the Minds of too many, the Fear of God and the Dread of future Puniſhment (thoſe two ſtrongeſt Curbs on the furious Paſſions of Mankind) they have prepared them for every Enormity. "To fear God and to honor the King" are Two Precepts joined together in Holy Writ; they cannot be ſeparated without Danger; and we know by Experience, by an Example too dreadful and too near us, that when once Religion is gone, all legitimate Authority is that Moment at an End.

Forgive, Sir, this Effuſion of an honeſt Zeal for the Preſervation of our Religion, and for that which, to a great Degree, reſts upon it, the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government Situated as we are in this great Metropolis of your Majeſty's Dominions, the appointed Guardians of the Morality and the Religion of it's numerous Inhabitants, we feel it our indiſpenſable Duty to lay theſe Obſervations at the Foot of your Majeſty's Throne, conceiving them to be very cloſely connected with the aweful Event that brings us here, and in the higheſt Degree worthy of moſt ſerious Conſideration.

We ſhall never ceaſe our Prayers, Sir, to that Almighty Being whoſe ever watchful Providence has ſo frequently and ſo remarkably interpoſed to ſhield your Majeſty from the moſt imminent Dangers, that He would ſtill continue his gracious Superintendance over you, and preſerve to us, for many many Years, the Father of our Country, the Guardian of our Laws, the Protector of our Freedom, and the firm Friend and Defender of our admirable Conſtitution, both Civil and Eccleſiaſtical.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Receive with the utmoſt Satisfaction this very dutiful and loyal Addreſs.

The affectionate Congratulations of My faithful Subjects upon this Occaſion leave Me only to lament, that ſo daring a Violation of the Laws ſhould have been committed. On My Part you may rely on My zealous Attachment to our excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State, and My Reſolution to maintain it inviolate.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

St. James's, December 10.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Hereford, and the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere Profeſſion of Gratitude to Almighty God for the merciful Interpoſition of his Divine Providence, in your Majeſty's Deliverance from the late Outrage committed, and the horrible Treaſon and Murther attempted againſt your ſacred Perſon; and we humbly beg Leave to add our warmeſt Congratulation to your Majeſty on the Safety of a Life, ſo valuable to our Church and State, to the Liberty, Property, and Lives of your dutiful Subjects, the happy People of this Land.

The daring Malignity of the Attempt, aggravated by the Circumſtance of the Time when your Majeſty was proceeding to a high and ſolemn Exerciſe of your Regal Dignity, and expreſſing as well as implying a Defiance of all Law and Government, and a Reſolution to plunge the whole Nation at once into Confuſion and Ruin, did not affect our Minds more deeply than the Inhumanity of the Deſign againſt a Prince, who is by every Tie of Duty, Gratitude and Intereſt moſt eminently entitled to the Veneration and Attachment of all his Subjects, over whoſe Hearts he hath hitherto ruled, by making their Welfare his Happineſs, and their Laws and Liberties the invariable Rule of his Conduct.

Whether we ſhudder at the atrocious premeditated Treaſon, or reflect with Shame on the baſe Ingratitude to which ſome of our deluded Fellow-Creatures were induced to degrade their Nature, we have the Conſolation of a firm Confidence in your Majeſty's Magnanimity and Goodneſs, that you will continue our gracious Protector againſt your Enemies, and the unnatural Enemies of our excellent Conſtitution; and we humbly profeſs before your Majeſty that we think ourſelves bound to inſtil into the Minds committed to our Care the beſt and genuine Public Spirit, Obedience to the Laws, which preſcribe the Duty of Subjects, and to ſuch further Improvement of thoſe Laws, as ſhall be deemed neceſſary by your Majeſty and the great Council of the Nation, for Prevention of the like alarming national Diſgrace and Ruin.

We implore the Divine Bleſſing in the long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, and pray, that when your Royal Example ſhall deſcend with the Throne to your illuſtrious Poſterity, it may be rewarded by the perſevering Allegiance of a loyal and grateful People.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ely, together with the Reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely, humbly approach your Majeſty, in common with the Reſt of your loyal Subjects, to expreſs our dutiful and juſt Abhorrence of the atrocious Inſults and traiterous Violence which have recently been offered to your Majeſty's Royal Dignity and perſonal Safety. We are impreſſed with the deepeſt Gratitude that it has pleaſed God to diſappoint an Attempt, which, at the ſame Time that it endangered your invaluable Life, brought into imminent Hazard the Exiſtence of our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State. So daring an Outrage could neither be conceived nor effected but by Perſons loſt to every Principle of Virtue and Allegiance, and totally unworthy to enjoy the Protection of your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government. We ſincerely hope that the Authors and Abettors of a Crime ſo alarming will not remain undiſcovered; that thoſe malevolent Diſſeminators of the frantic Principles of Irreligion and Anarchy will feel the full Weight of that Indignation and legal Puniſhment which ſuch Depravity requires. May the ſame gracious Providence which has indulgently bleſſed theſe Kingdoms with your Majeſty's exemplary and auſpicious Rule render them worthy of a long Continuance of it; and that the guardian Hand of Heaven may ſtill ſhield your Crown and

Life

Life from every evil Conſpiracy and open Violence will be the conſtant Prayer of thoſe who now beg your Majeſty's favourable Acceptance of their zealous and moſt reſpectful Declarations of inviolable Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO accept the ſincere Congratulations of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor, on your providential Eſcape from a late daring Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament at the Moment you were performing one of the weightieſt Duties of the Crown; and to permit us, at the ſame Time, to expreſs our entire Deteſtation of the pernicious Principles which prompted certain Perſons to aſſault your Majeſty in ſo violent and outrageous a Manner.

Your Majeſty's great perſonal Virtues, and the Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and equal Government, have raiſed in our Breaſts ſuch an unfeigned Love, Affection, and Veneration for your Majeſty, that we heard, with the utmoſt Horror and Indignation, that any could be found within your Majeſty's Dominions ſo profligate and abandoned as to join in a traiterous Deſign, by which your Royal Perſon was endangered, and in that the Happineſs and Safety of the whole Country; and we obſerve, with the deepeſt Concern and Regret, that neither the Laws in Being, nor even your Majeſty's perſonal Qualities, could ſecure you againſt the Treaſons and Conſpiracies of theſe Times; and we therefore moſt earneſtly hope and truſt that the Wiſdom of Parliament will ſpeedily deviſe ſuch ſalutary Meaſures as will effectually check and reſtrain this daring Spirit of Sedition.

As we feel in common with the Reſt of our Fellow Subjects the encreaſing Weight of the public Taxes, we return your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for your gracious Intention of giving the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt Effect to a Negotiation for a general Peace on juſt and ſuitable Terms, whenever the Situation of Affairs is ſuch as to afford a reaſonable Expectation that a ſecure and permanent Treaty might be concluded; and being perſuaded that nothing is ſo likely to enſure and accelerate this deſirable End as to ſtrengthen your Majeſty's Hands, and enable you to proſecute the War with Energy and Vigour, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall moſt chearfully ſubmit to any farther Aids which the Exigencies of the Public Service may require, and be ready, on all Occaſions, to exert ourſelves in the beſt Manner we can for the Support of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government againſt all your Enemies both foreign and domeſtic.

In the ſeveral Places where we have been appointed to ſerve, it hath been our conſtant Care to encourage, both by Precept and Example, good Order, a due Degree of Subordination, and a Reverence for our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State; and we have the Satisfaction to think that the looſe and licentious Opinions, which are propagating with ſuch unceaſing Induſtry, have made but little Progreſs in this remote Part of your Realm; and your Majeſty may be aſſured that we ſhall be vigilant, and ſpare no Pains to prevent the Growth of them: And may that all-merciful God, who ſo ſignally protected your Majeſty from the Fury of a deluded Multitude, make this good Work to proſper in our Hands, and continue to guard, and long preſerve your Majeſty, as a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, to our moſt gracious Queen, and your Royal Progeny.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of St. Peter of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbiſhop and the Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of St. Peter of York, beg Leave to expreſs our Concurrence in the general Teſtimonies of a ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty, and to join in the publick Congratulations on your providentlal Deverance from a traiterous Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon.

However atrocious and alarming the Attempt was, it has been followed by this Satisfaction, that it has produced the moſt genuine Effuſions of Affection and Eſteem from all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects; and theſe not ariſing from a caſual or ſhort Popularity, but from the ſober Deciſions of deliberate Judgement.

You have the Happineſs, Sire, to be the Sovereign of an honeſt People who abhor ſuch Treaſons, not only as being wicked and contrary to the Welfare of common Society, but as particularly dangerous to free Conſtitutions, which are always brought into extreme Hazard by ſuch Attempts.

In Addition to their general Reaſonings, they ſaw in the Perſon of your Majeſty a Life endangered, in the Preſervation of which their deareſt Intereſts were all involved.

Permit us, Sire, who conſider your Majeſty as not by Law only but by Principle the Defender of our Faith, to be as forward, at leaſt as any others, in the Expreſſion of our Zeal and Duty. We have already in our Prayers offered theſe the Feelings of our Hearts at the Throne of Grace, and we think ourſelves ſafe in expreſſing them to your Majeſty, being aſſured, from the Nobleneſs of your Nature, that they will excite in you no other Sentiments but thoſe of an encreaſed Affection to a dutiful and deſerving People.

Given under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Archbiſhop, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Dean and Chapter, the 23d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

W. Ebor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Briſtol, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with our unfeigned Congratulations on the Eſcape your Majeſty has recently had, under the Providence of God, from the outrageous Attacks made upon your ſacred Perſon by the deluded Agents of deſperate and wicked Men,

The unanimous Expreſſions of Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty which were called forth a few Years ago upon an Occaſion partly ſimilar, were juſtly excited by a Regard for your perſonal Virtues, and a Senſe of the Bleſſings we have long enjoyed under your Government; but while, under the Impreſſion of the ſame Sentiments, we ſee ourſelves called upon to repeat thoſe Expreſſions, it is with the utmoſt Aſtoniſhment and Horror that we have additional Regret to find that the preſent Attempt, of which we thus preſume to teſtify our Abhorrence, was the Effect of deliberate and intentional Wickedneſs.

Senſible as we are that ſuch an Attempt, independent of the Danger to which it expoſes a Life ſo juſtly dear to us, is a direct Attack upon that excellent Conſtitution which has ſo long been our Boaſt, and by which, under your Majeſty's Auſpices, we have hitherto been preſerved from the Contagion around us, we cannot but conſider the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life as involving in it a Continuance of that Civil and Religious Eſtabliſhment, by which our deareſt Intereſts are protected, and which it has ever been the chief Concern of your Majeſty to ſtrengthen and ſupport.

Under ſuch Circumſtances we look with Confidence to the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature, and the Vigilance of thoſe entruſted with the Execution of the Laws, not only to bring the Perpetrators and Abettors of ſuch nefarious Attempts to the Puniſhment they deſerve, but to provide alſo ſuch further Securities as may be moſt likely to defeat, in future, the Machinations of evil-minded Men; and we implore that Providence, which has hitherto watched over theſe Kingdoms, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a grateful and united People.

[Preſented by the Lord Biſhop of Briſtol.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rocheſter, and Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rocheſter, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe, beg Permiſſion to approach your Royal Preſence to teſtify our Horror at the late outrageous Attempt of infatuated and abandoned Men upon your ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs the warm Emotions of our Joy upon the happy Event of your Majeſty's Deliverance. We admire and adore the Mercy of that good Providence which, in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's invaluable Life, hath reſcued this Church and Kingdom from impending Ruin. Sire, when the Weapon of the baſe Aſſaſſin, which providentially had miſſed it's Aim, was levelled at your anointed Head, the Aſſault was at once upon your Life, upon your Throne, upon the Conſtitution, upon our National Church, and upon the Chriſtian Religion. We render Thanks to God that he hath fruſtrated ſuch complicated Schemes of Miſchief; and with our Praiſes for this ſignal Mercy our Prayers ſhall be daily ſent up to the Almighty for your Majeſty's continual Safety and Preſervation, which are one with the Safety and Preſervation of your People, and for the endleſs Proſperity and Glory of your Royal Houſe.

[Preſented by the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, accompanied by the Lord Biſhop of Briſtol.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter, and the Warden, Fellows and Maſters of the College near Wincheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter, and the Warden, Fellows and Maſters of the College near Wincheſter, deeply impreſſed by the great Bleſſings we enjoy under our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, and fully ſatisfied how much the mild and prudent Government of your Majeſty concurs with the Spirit of that Conſtitution to render us more ſenſible of theſe Bleſſings, have approached your ſacred Majeſty to expreſs our extreme Abhorrence of the late wicked and deſperate Attempts againſt your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

We ſincerely lament that Spirit of Sedition and Diſorder which manifeſted itſelf in thoſe atrocious Exceſſes, conſidering the Attack upon your Majeſty in the Diſcharge of one of your moſt important Functions as no leſs a daring Violation of the Laws, and a groſs Inſult on the Dignity of the Country at large, than a horrid and deteſtable Attempt on the Life the moſt valuable and intereſting to us in theſe your Majeſty's Dominions.

We are happy in the Perſuaſion that this odious Crime was imagined by a few ſhameleſs and abandoned Individuals only, loſt to Gratitude and Duty, whilſt the Senſe of your Subjects at large is, in Uniſon with our own, full of Love and Reverence for your Majeſty's Perſon, Character and Virtues; and full of Aſſurance, that in the Obſervance and Reſpect which are due to the Laws and Religion of the Country, are alone to be found the real Safety of the Conſtitution, the true Happineſs and genuine Liberty of the Britiſh Subject.

[Preſented by the Lord Biſhop of Wincheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. David's.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. David's, truly conſcious of the many invaluable Bleſſings which we have experienced from the conſtant and anxious Exertions of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention to the Good of your People and the Welfare of your Kingdoms, beg Leave to expreſs our zealous Attachment to the Perſon of your Majeſty, as well as the mild Government under which we live. Gratefully thankful to the Supreme Being for having preſerved a Life of ſuch Importance, as well to the Maintenance of Civil and Religious Liberty as to the Proſperity of the Nation, we look with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation Deteſtation on the late outrageous Violence directed againſt the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty. We deeply lament that there ſhould be found, in your Majeſty's Dominions, Men ſo inſenſible to the fatherly Love which your Majeſty bears towards all your Subjects, and of Diſpoſitions ſo vile, as for one Moment to forget that Reſpect which is due to beſt of Sovereigns.

Accept, Sire, our ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that, as Miniſters of the beſt Eccleſiaſtical Eſtabliſhment in the World, we will continue unwearied in the Diſcharge of the Duties of our ſacred Function, as the moſt effectual Means of promoting Peace, Loyalty, and every Species of public and private Virtue. We alſo intreat your Majeſty to be aſſured, that we will not ceaſe to offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to Almighty God, beſeeching Him to protect your ſacred Perſon, and grant your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign.

William St. David's.

[Preſented by the Lord Biſhop of St. David's.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, humbly preſume to offer to your Majeſty our moſt heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late Providential Eſcape from the atrocious Blow aimed againſt your ſacred Life by the Hand of a deſperate and rebellious Aſſaſſin; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that whilſt we ſincerely deplore and deteſt the Wickedneſs of ſo treacherous an Attempt, we return our moſt unfeigned Thanks to Providence for the Preſervation of a Life which we moſt earneſtly hope will long continue to afford to your Majeſty's Dominions it's wonted Example of every Royal Virtue, and to be a Bleſſing to the People committed to your Charge.

[Preſented by Cuthb. Shafto, Eſq; Sheriff of the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt heartfelt Congratulation on your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attack upon your Royal Perſon, at the Moment your Majeſty was engaged in one of the moſt important Functions of the Sovereign of theſe Realms.

We rely with Confidence on the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature, that ſome Law may be enacted for the better Security of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and alſo for the more effectually preventing ſeditious Meetings and Aſſemblies, where Attempts are made to involve this Country in all the Miſeries which Anarchy and Confuſion may produce.

Permit us, Sire, to return our Thanks to your Majeſty for the Aſſurance made by your Majeſty to Parliament, that you will reſtore to your Kingdoms the Bleſſings of Peace, when it can be obtained upon juſt and ſuitable Terms.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT was with the utmoſt Indignation that we, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, learnt that an Attempt to aſſaſſinate your Majeſty was made on the 29th of October laſt, during your Paſſage to your Parliament.

Accept, moſt gracious Sovereign, our ſincere Congratulations upon your happy Eſcape from the Hands of theſe Miſcreants.

We rely with Confidence that ſuch Meaſures will be adopted by the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature as may effectually ſuppreſs thoſe ſeditious Meetings, where it appears to us that Attempts are made to involve this Country in all the Miſeries which Anarchy and Confuſion can produce.

We truſt and hope that it will pleaſe the Almighty to ſhield you from the Attacks of all your Enemies, both foreign and domeſtic, and to continue to your Subjects that Happineſs which they have long experienced under your benign and paternal Protection.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others, the Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Halifax, in the County of York, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and cordial Congratulations on your late providential Deliverance from the outrageous Attempts of deſperate and abandoned Men; and as we feel ourſelves moſt deeply intereſted in your Majeſty's Welfare, we are happy to obſerve that the Wiſdom of Parliament is now engaged in forming ſuch Laws as we hope will ever ſecure your ſacred Perſon from the like atrocious Violence, and effectually ſuppreſs all ſeditious Meetings, tending to the Deſtruction of public Peace and Security; and we pray that the ſame Tranquillity and Happineſs, which this Kingdom has hitherto enjoyed under the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, may, by the Bleſſing of Heaven upon your Majeſty and your Deſcendants, remain to the lateſt Poſterity.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in the County of York, feel ourſelves under the ſtrongeſt Obligations of Duty and Allegiance to unite with our Fellow Subjects in preſenting an humble Addreſs to your Majeſty on one of the moſt alarming and eventful Occaſions that in our Opinion ever occurred in the Annals of this Kingdom.

Kingdom. We would wiſh, moſt gracious Sire, to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, our utter and moſt cordial Abhorrence and Deteſtation, not only of the the late atrocious Outrage offered to your Majeſty, but of thoſe pernicious and deſtructive Principles alſo from which it too clearly originated; for we conſider it not merely in the Light of a wanton and unprovoked Attack upon your auguſt Perſon, but as levelled at the very Fabrick itſelf of the Britiſh Conſtitution. We further beg to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, on our Parts, at the Riſk of every Thing that is dear or valuable to us as Individuals, oppoſe, to the utmoſt of our Power, every Machination of thoſe worſt of Foes, the Diſturbers of the internal Peace of the Country, and the avowed Enemies of all regal Government; and that we will exert ourſelves to give Efficacy to ſuch ſalutary Laws as in the Wiſdom of Parliament may be thought expedient at this Criſis for the Prevention of thoſe ſeditious Meetings, which have been too long the Bane of this Country; at the ſame Time offering up our ſincere Petitions to Heaven, that the Great Diſpoſer of all Events may be pleaſed to avert thoſe dire Calamities which have for ſome Time threatened to overwhelm this highly favoured Nation, and that the ſame kind Providence (which has hitherto in a ſignal Manner diſplayed itſelf in your Majeſty's Preſervation) may ſtill continue to protect you, that ſo we may long experience the bleſſed Effects of your mild and parental Government.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Huddersfield, impreſſed with the warmeſt Gratitude to Divine Providence for protecting your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in the late ferocious and wicked Attack made upon your Majeſty by a Band of Miſcreants, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our Congratulations for your happy Deliverance. It is our ardent Wiſh and Prayer, that the Safety of your Majeſty may never more be endangered, but that uninterrupted Health and Tranquillity may attend your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life through a long Series of Years to come.

We contemplate with Pleaſure the Meaſures now purſuing by Parliament for more effectually reſtraining the licentious Freedom of turbulent and ſeditious Men; and ſincerely hope that, under the Favour of Heaven, the Bleſſings derived to this Nation from our preſent happy Conſtitution may be continued to the lateſt Poſterity under the Auſpices of your auguſt Family.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barnſley, in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barnſley, ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild, auſpicious and paternal Government, and intereſted as we feel ourſelves, in the Preſervation of a Life ſo dear to us as that of your moſt ſacred Majeſty, moſt humbly approach your Majeſty and beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late atrocious and diabolical Outrage committed againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon. We are thankful for the Interference of that good Providence which, in the preſent Inſtance, ſo miraculouſly preſerved it: We lament the Neceſſity of the Interference of the Legiſlature for its more immediate Protection; and we humbly implore the ſame good Providence to keep your Majeſty under its eſpecial Care and Protection, to the End that we, and all other your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, ſo dear to your Majeſty, may long poſſeſs and enjoy all the Bleſſings and Privileges handed down to us through your Majeſty and our moſt excellent Conſtitution as by Law eſtabliſhed.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford in Yorkſhire, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your late providential Eſcape from the traiterous Attack of Ruffians upon your ſacred Perſon, when in the Execution of one of the moſt important Functions of the Crown. We lament that ſuch a Circumſtance ſhould have happened to diſgrace the Annals of this Country, and we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Horror and Indignation at ſo daring and unprovoked an Inſult, together with our Execration of the infernal Purpoſe which ſuggeſted and gave Birth to ſo heinous a Crime; and as it is our firm Opinion that it originated in certain ſeditious Meetings, Speeches and Writings, tending to alienate the Minds of the People from your Majeſty's mild Government, and to ſubvert the happy Conſtitution of this Kingdom, we feel it our Duty to declare that we every Day ſee more Occaſion to approve and firmly adhere to thoſe Principles which firſt induced us to arm, under the Sanction of Parliament and your Majeſty's Commiſſions; and that we will be at all Times ready to aſſiſt the Civil Magiſtrate in ſuppreſſing the firſt Riſings of Sedition, and to nip Rebellion in the Bud. And we do ſolemnly pledge ourſelves, that we will, on all Occaſions which may require our Interference or Aid, ſtand forward in the Defence of the Religious and Civil Eſtabliſhment of this Kingdom; and that, on no Account whatever, will we ſhrink from the Oath we have taken, to ſupport your Majeſty's Perſon and Government againſt all your Foes, foreign and domeſtic.

Ormſkirk, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, beg Leave moſt humbly to join with our Fellow Subjects in expreſſing our Indignation on the Outrage lately offered againſt your Royal Perſon, and our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the horrid Attempt.

We beg Leave, at the ſame Time, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready to defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, with our Lives and Property, and to ſupport every conſtitutional Law for that Purpoſe.

We truſt that the affectionate Attachment which your Majeſty hath experienced on this Occaſion will convince ſeditious Men in every Rank and Situation, that, relying on the Goodneſs of Divine Providence for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's valuable Life, every true Briton will protect, to the utmoſt of his Power, the Bleſſings he enjoys under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Preſcott, in the County of Lancaſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Preſcott, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your late happy and providential Eſcape from the atrocious and malignant Attack made on the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt important of your Functions.

We cannot but expreſs our Wonder that there could be found amongſt your Subjects Men wicked or miſguided enough to attempt a Crime, the Effects of which we ſhudder to imagine.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy with undiminiſhed Splendor the Crown of theſe Realms, and tranſmit our excellent Conſtitution unimpaired to Poſterity, is our moſt fervent Prayer.

In Witneſs whereof we have hereto ſet our Hands this 26th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Inhabitants of the Iſlands of Scilly, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence of the late traiteous Outrage committed againſt the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty; and, animated with the pureſt Sentiments of Loyalty, we cannot but expreſs our earneſt Hope that the Abettors and Contrivers, as well as the actual Perpetrators of ſo atrocious an Inſult offered to the Perſon of our Monarch may be brought to ſpeedy and condign Puniſhment.

We cannot ſuppoſe any Subject of your Majeſty would have been guilty of ſuch an Attempt unleſs ſeduced by the malevolent Arts of thoſe, who, preferring Anarchy to regular Government, appear as little ſenſible of the Bleſſings of the Britiſh Conſtitution as entitled to it's Protection.

Although ſituated in a remote Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, we boaſt the Glory of being Britiſh Subjects, and, as ſuch, muſt conſider the Preſervation of our deareſt Rights and Liberties as deeply and eſſentially intereſted in the Safety of our Sovereign, whoſe firſt and beſt Prerogative conſiſts in being enabled by the Conſtitution to protect them.

We deplore with Indignation, and execrate ſuch atrocious Purpoſes; and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Readineſs to ſacrifice our Lives in Defence of your Majeſty's Crown and Perſon.

May the Great Diſpoſer of all Events long continue to us the Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Life, and preſerve to our lateſt Poſterity the Happineſs of the Britiſh Conſtitution.

We are, Sire, with the moſt perfect Attachment and Loyalty, your dutiful, faithful, and obedient Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, the Archdeacons, and others the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cheſter, humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our earneſt Abhorrence of the Outrage lately committed againſt the Dignity and Safety of your ſacred Perſon.

Whilſt we lament with the deepeſt Concern that wicked Principles and ſeditious Arts could ſo far have ſucceeded as to endanger your Majeſty's Perſon, and expoſe to imminent Hazard the Bleſſings which, under God, we owe to our civil Conſtitution and your Majeſty's paternal Affection for your People, we congratulate your Majeſty and the Nation at large upon your providential Eſcape from the daring Deſigns of a tumultuous and treaſonable Combination, and we anxiouſly hope that the Proviſions deviſed by your Parliament will in future afford an effectual Security againſt Attempts ſo atrocious and alarming.

For ourſelves, it ſhall continue to be our Care conſtantly to inculcate, upon Principles of true Religion as well as thoſe of ſound Policy, an inviolate Attachment to your Perſon, a dutiful Submiſſion to your Government, and a vigilant Solicitude for the Safety and Preſervation of a Conſtitution, from which, by the Indulgence of Divine Providence, we have ſo long experienced the moſt valuable and important Benefits of ſocial Order.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Leiceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Leiceſter, this Day aſſembled at the Caſtle of Leiceſter, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Eſcape your Majeſty has lately experienced from the daring Outrages offered to your Majeſty's Perſon, in paſſing to the Houſe of Parliament. Deeply affected with a Senſe of ſuch a flagrant Inſtance of Licentiouſneſs, which we cannot reflect upon without Deteſtation and Abhorrence, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Crown and Dignity; and although we are prevented by our Diſtance from uſing our Endeavors to bring ſuch Offenders to Juſtice, yet we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will cultivate and maintain in our County, as far as in us lies, that Spirit of Peace, Harmony and good Behaviour, ſo agreeable to your Majeſty's Wiſhes, and ſo eſſential to the Happineſs and Well-Being of your People. It is our fervent Wiſh and Prayer, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorſet, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, impreſſed with the pureſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family, and convinced of the Advantages and Bleſſings which we have enjoyed under our excellent Conſtitution, and under the juſt Adminiſtration of Government during your Majeſty's Reign.

In congratulating therefore your Majeſty upon your providential and moſt happy Eſcape, we cannot but expreſs, at the ſame Time, the extreme Indignation we feel at the late atrocious Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon in the Execution of one of your moſt neceſſary and conſtitutional Functions; and are anxious to declare our utter Abhorrence of thoſe Principles, which by their fatal Tendency did excite and encourage ſome malignant Miſcreants to that wicked and unmanly Attempt. Under theſe Impreſſions, though our Hope and Confidence is, that the Tranquillity of the Kingdom will be maintained, that the Malignant will be controuled, and that the Miſguided will ſee their Error; ſtill ſhould the good Order of Society require further Protection, and ſhould more active Exertions unhappily become neceſſary, we, as faithful Subjects to your Majeſty, and zealous Supporters of Government againſt Anarchy, are ready and willing to come forward, at the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of our Laws, Religion, and Conſtitution.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Loyal Corps of Newark Volunteer Infantry.

PERMIT us to aſſure your Majeſty that we feel the greateſt Abhorrence at the wicked and daring Attempt which has been lately made againſt your Royal Perſon; and we return our ſincere Thanks to Divine Providence for having averted from us the moſt direful Calamity that could have befallen a Nation, ſo happy in the Enjoyment of the moſt enviable Conſtitution, and under the Government of the beſt of Kings. But whilſt we lament that there exiſts in theſe Kingdoms any Man ſo miſguided or ſo wicked as to violate in ſuch an outrageous Manner the Laws of his Country, we truſt that this Attempt will unite the Wiſhes and give Energy to the Endeavours of all good Men to ſupport them

We have aſſociated for the Defence of our King, our Laws, and our Conſtitution, and we do unanimouſly and moſt ſolemnly declare our Reſolution to protect and ſupport them to the utmoſt of our Power: And that your Majeſty may long enjoy the Bleſſings of a happy and proſperous Reign is our moſt cordial Wiſh.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Fully ſenſible of the great Importance of your Majeſty's Safety to the Well-being of the State, we confidently truſt in the Wiſdom and Exertions of Parliament for the Preſervation of our beloved Sovereign, and the Security of our glorious Conſtitution, and fervently pray that it will pleaſe God to render your's a long and happy Reign over a loyal and grateful People.

Participating in the Bleſſings of a juſt, mild and paternal Government, we ardently hope for the Continuance of them, in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, the Efficacy of the Laws, and the unimpaired

The late atrocious Attacks made on your ſacred Perſon, in going to and returning from your Parliament, have filled us with Indignation and Horror. We lament that in this Nation any ſhould be found ſo inſenſible to thoſe Virtues by which your Majeſty has ever been ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed as the Father of your People, and as the faithful Guardian of our happy Conſtitution, as to expoſe theſe Realms to the Danger of loſing the beſt of Sovereigns, and, perhaps, of incurring all the Horrors of Anarchy and Irreligion.

Impreſſed with the moſt devout Gratitude to Almighty God for having averted, by your Majeſty's Preſervation, ſo dreadful a Calamity, we beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on this providential Deliverance. While we join, on this Occaſion, in the general Expreſſions of Loyalty and Attachment, we feel particular Satisfaction for the Intereſts of Learning, of which your Majeſty has always been ſo munificent a Patron.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Somerſet, actuated by the greateſt Regard and Attention to the Conſtitution of this Country, and by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Affection to your Majeſty, preſume to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the providential and happy Eſcape your Majeſty has experienced from the late outrageous and daring Attack on your ſacred Perſon, and at the ſame Time to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of the very atrocious Attempt, by which your Majeſty's Life, ſo deſervedly dear and valuable to the People of theſe Realms, has been endangered, and the Laws ſo groſsly violated.

It is at the ſame Time our anxious Deſire that Meaſures may be adopted to ſuppreſs thoſe unlawful Aſſemblies, where the ſeditious Harangues and the Doctrines propagated have a manifeſt Tendency to encourage the Violation of your Majeſty's Sovereignty and the Subverſion of all legal Government, and to bring upon us thoſe conſequent Calamities which have been ſo fatally exemplified in a neighbouring Kingdom.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Ayr.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Ayr, beg Leave to approach the Throne of our beloved Sovereign with Sentiments of Indignation on account of the late flagitious Outrage offered by a miſguided Multitude to your Royal Perſon. Such Diſorders ariſing in your capital City, in the Face of legal and conſtitutional Government, cannot but alarm us; ſince, beſides the Inſolence which theſe expreſs towards your ſacred Majeſty, they ſeem to bear a menacing Aſpect upon the Liberties of the People at large.

We feel the ſincereſt Joy and Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majeſty's Eſcape from this unlooked for Danger, and hope that the Authors of it will be brought to a juſt Senſe of their Folly and Wickedneſs. We have the moſt perfect Confidence in the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, ſupported by the Wiſdom of Parliament, that the moſt proper and effectual Means will be deviſed for preventing in future ſimilar Outrages, ſo diſgraceful to the Character of the Nation, and ſo hurtful to it's true Intereſt and Happineſs.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Society of Solicitors at Law before the Commiſſary, Sheriff, and City Courts of Edinburgh.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Society of Solicitors at Law of Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with determined Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Safety from the very daring and flagitious Attack made on your Royal Perſon.

We cannot help being ſurprized, and to declare our Deteſtation at any Expreſſion of Diſcontent with our happy Conſtitution and the Government of this Country, where Life, Liberty and Property are ſecured to every Subject by equitable Laws; where no Perſon is perſecuted on account of his Religious Principles; the more rigid feudal Servitudes of our Anceſtors have been done away; the whole Face of the Kingdom, in the Courſe of the laſt Age, evidently changed ſo much for the better; and, in fine, where Happineſs is open to all who will conduct themſelves with Propriety. We would hope the good Senſe of the Britiſh Nation will reflect, and be convinced of theſe Truths; and that, in the mean Time, the Wiſdom of Parliament will take ſuch Meaſures as they may ſee neceſſary to prevent any Miſchief to the Government from the Evil-deſigning or Miſled.

We humbly beg Leave to join our loyal Fellow Subjects in offering our Thankſgivings to the Almighty for his Interpoſition in preſerving your Majeſty's Life for the Peace and Happineſs of your Subjects, and the Welfare of all your Dominions over the Globe.

Deign, Sire, to believe that we will, at all Times, and at the Riſk of our Lives and Property, uſe our utmoſt Exertions and Endeavours to ſupport your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and to defend your ſacred Perſon againſt all thoſe who dare attempt to weaken the Foundation of the one, or to hurt, or inſult the other. We humbly beſeech your Majeſty will, in Conjunction with your Parliament, take ſuch Steps as may appear moſt likely to ſtop the rapid Progreſs of ſeditious Meetings, which are the Fountains from which the moſt alarming and calamitous Evils are likely to proceed.

Believe us to be your Majeſty's ever faithful and affectionate Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Fordyce.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Fordyce, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late ſhameful and atrocious Inſult offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Authority, on the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

We are unable to expreſs the Indignation and Abhorrence which we feel againſt thoſe deluded Perſons who inſtigated or committed the unprovoked Attack.

While we truly execrate the Principles which lead to ſuch outrageous Conduct, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, and that we will continue to inculcate, by Precept and Example, among the People under our paſtoral Care, that Harmony, Peace, and Obedience to the Laws, which are ſo congenial to the Intereſts of Religion, and ſo eſſential to the Happineſs of Society.

That the over-ruling Providence of the Almighty King of Kings may continue to ſhield your Majeſty from all the Deſigns of your Enemies, whether open or inſidious, whether foreign or domeſtic, is our anxious Wiſh and fervent Prayer.

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Fordoun, in Preſbytery aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Fordoun, join our Voice to that of our Countrymen, in expreſſing Horror and Indignation at the late daring Attempt made by lawleſs and deluded Men upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and Gratitude to Almighty God for having preſerved to us in Safety our beloved Sovereign.

Senſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings which we enjoy under the Britiſh Government, and deeply impreſſed with your Majeſty's perſonal Virtues, we would rejoice in the Adoption of ſuch Meaſures as might have a Tendency to ſecure to us and to our Poſterity the Continuance of our free Conſtitution, and to prevent your Majeſty's Feelings from being again wounded, and your Majeſty's Safety endangered, by the Violence of any of thoſe Subjects, over whoſe Intereſts your Majeſty has ever watched with the moſt paternal Solicitude.

Signed, in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Preſbytery of Fordoun, at Bervie, the 25th Day of November, 1795 Years, by

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Corps of Thurſo Volunteers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of Thurſo, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with Sentiments of the firmeſt Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

It was with equal Aſtoniſhment and Indignation that we heard of the Dangers to which your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon was expoſed, in paſſing to and from the Parliament Houſe, upon the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion. The daring Outrages of that Day, which appear to have been premeditated, clearly evince that the Enemies of our glorious Conſtitution have not yet loſt Sight of their wicked Purpoſes: We cannot therefore but approve of every Exertion of the Legiſlative Body and of the Executive Power, which may tend to defeat ſuch traiterous Deſigns.

While we congratulate your Majeſty upon your late happy Eſcape, and offer up our fervent Prayers to Heaven for the long Preſervation of your precious Life, as a Bleſſing to your Kingdoms, the Volunteers of Thurſo beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that they ſhall always be found ready to ſtand forth in the Defence of their King, their Country, and its Conſtitution, againſt the Attacks of foreign Invaders, or the more dangerous Attempts of ſecret and domeſtic Enemies.

Signed, in our Preſence, at Thurſo, the 23d Day of November, 1795, by John Roſe, Major-Commandant.
